PUT ON YOUR UNIFORM OF BLUE

FOR YOUR COUNTRY IS CALLING YOU

50¢

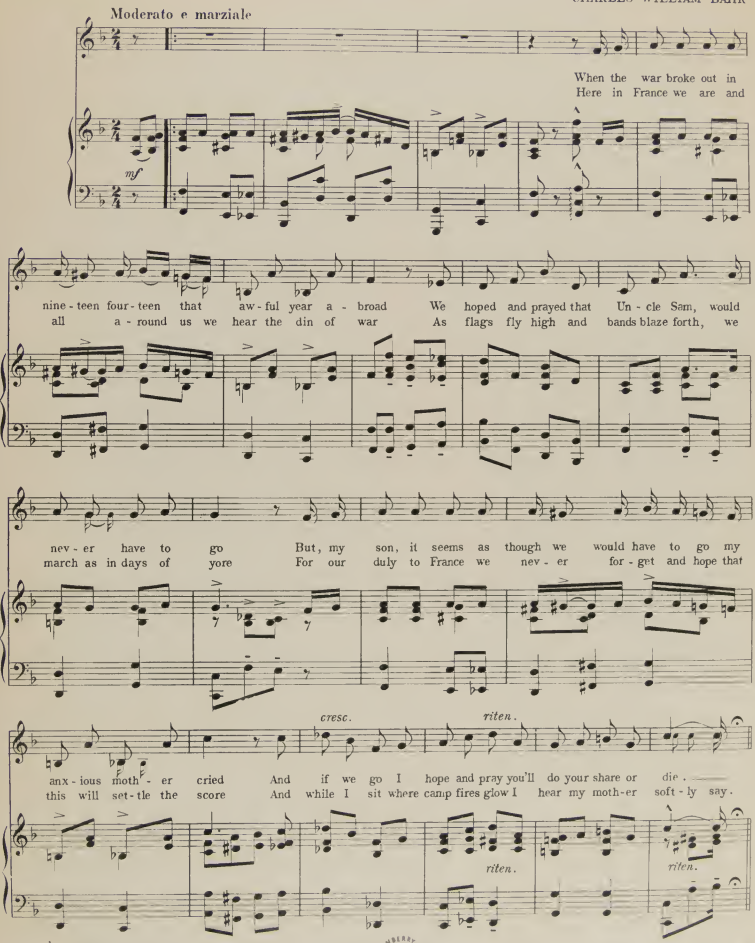
COPYRIGHT 1917 BY CHARLES W. BAHR.
INTERNATIONAL COPYRIGHT SECURED

Words by
MARY BURNS BAHR
Music by
CHARLES W. BAHR
QUINCY, MASS.

PUT ON YOUR UNIFORM OF BLUE
For Your Country's Calling You

Words by
MARY BURNS BAHR

Music by
CHARLES WILLIAM BAHR



Moderato e marziale
mf
When the war broke out in Here in France we are and nine - teen four - teen that aw - ful year a - broad We hoped and prayed that Un - cle Sam, would all a - round us we hear the din of war As flags fly high and bands blaze forth, we nev - er have to go But, my son, it seems as though we would have to go my march as in days of yore For our duly to France we nev - er for - get and hope that cresc.
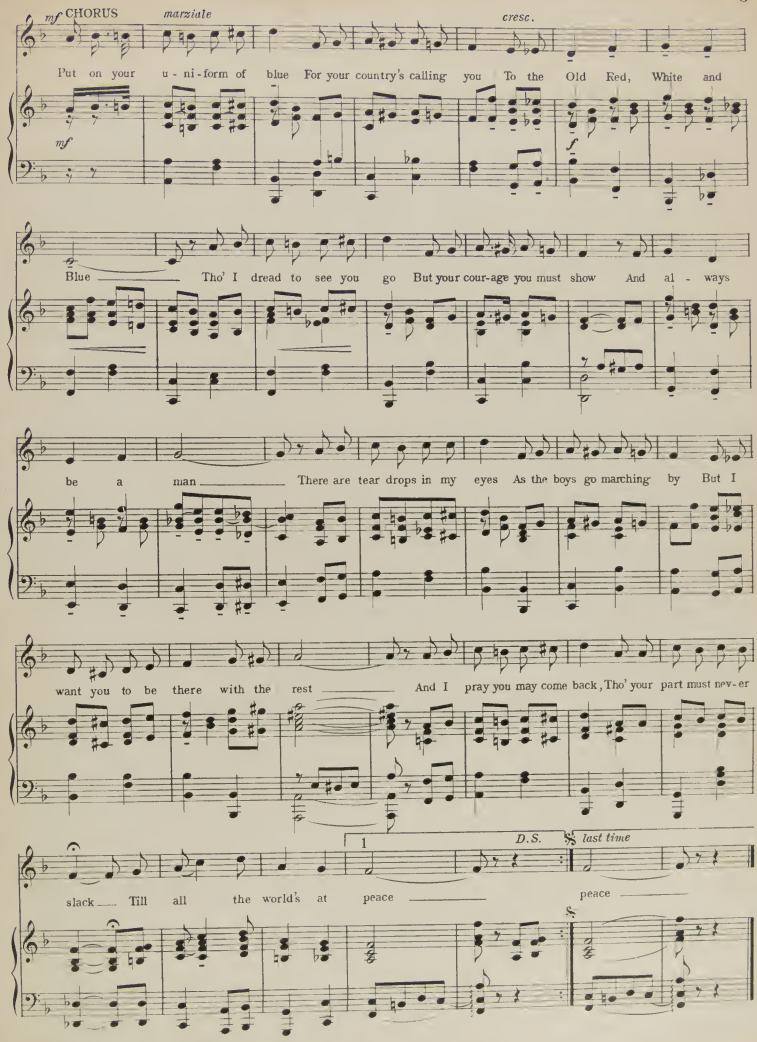
riten.
anx - ious moth - er cried And if we go I hope and pray you'll do your share or die.
this will set - tle the score And while I sit where camp fires glow I hear my moth - er soft - ly say.
riten.
riten.

Copyright, 1917, by Bahr Piano & Music Company

International Copyright Secured



mf CHORUS
marziale
cresc.
Put on your u - ni - form of blue For your country's calling you To the Old Red, White and
mf
f
Blue Tho' I dread to see you go But your cour-age you must show And al - ways be a man There are tear drops in my eyes As the boys go marching by But I want you to be there with the rest And I pray you may come back, Tho' your part must nev-er 1
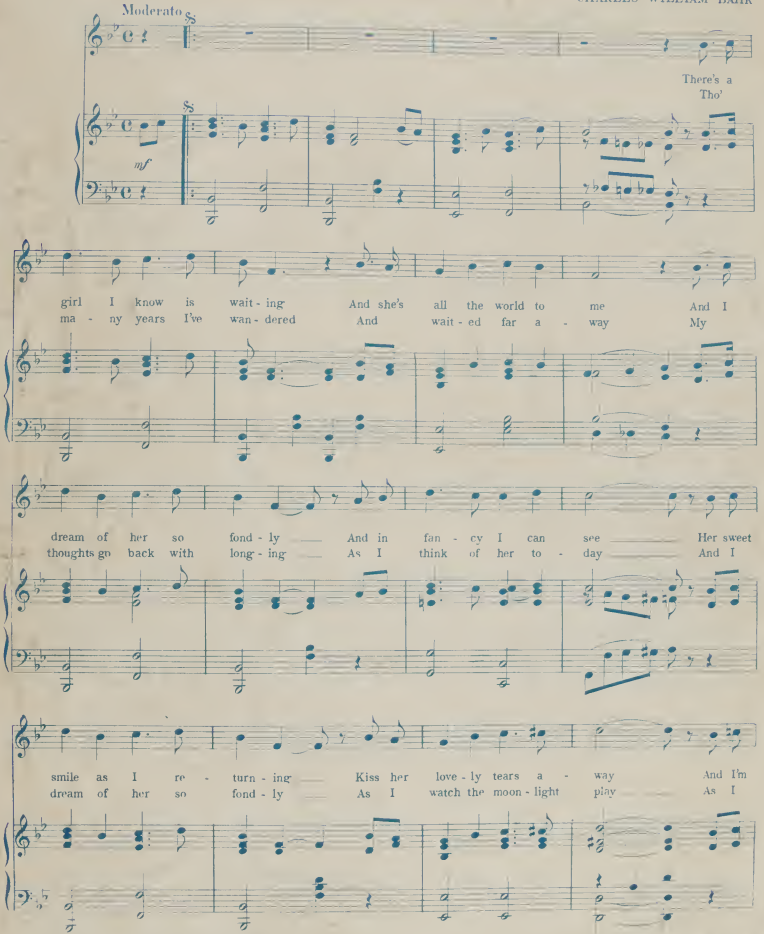
D.S.
last time
slack Till all the world's at peace peace

TRY THIS OVER ON YOUR PIANO
WHERE THE NIGHTINGALES ARE SINGING
To My Dear Sweet Southern Rose

Words by
MARY BURNS BAHR

Music by
CHARLES WILLIAM BAHR



Moderato
There's a Tho'
mf
girl I know is wait - ing And she's all the world to me And I ma - ny years I've wan - dered And wait - ed far a - way My dream of her so fond - ly And in fan - cy I can see Her sweet thoughts go back with long - ing As I think of her to - day And I smile as I re - turn - ing Kiss her love - ly tears a - way And I'm dream of her so fond - ly As I watch the moon - light play As I

Copyright, 1917, by Bahr Piano & Music Company International Copyright Secured

COMPLETE COPIES AT ALL MUSIC STORES